

Pinewood Christian Academy Family Agreement

We recognize that children are trained spiritually first and foremost in the home. For this reason, we affirm that at least one parent is a professing Christian, trusting in Jesus Christ alone for salvation, and regularly attending a local protestant, gospel-teaching church.

We acknowledge that while Pinewood Christian Academy does not discriminate based on race, color, nationality, or ethnic origin, they do reserve the right to admit and/or dismiss students on the basis of academic performance, behavioral concerns, family lifestyle choices, and cooperation with school personnel and policies.

We acknowledge that there may be times when we are at odds with a PCA teacher, administrator, staff member, or other parent(s) and that dealing with conflict publicly (e.g. harassment, gossip, social media, etc.) is potentially harmful to individual relationships, the school community in general, and the witness and reputation of PCA as a Christian school (see Galatians 5:13-15). Therefore, we commit to following the Biblical principles of peacemaking and reconciliation established by Jesus in Matthew 18:15-17 and by the Apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 6:1-8.

We agree to actively support the faculty, administration, and staff as together we strive to provide our child(ren) with an excellent education in an environment that emphasizes compassion and responsibility. This includes, but is not limited to, providing daily support and accountability for our child(ren)'s academic success, complying with disciplinary practices, and upholding the Biblical values that are foundational to all school policies and practices.

We acknowledge that the Parent-Student Handbook contains the standard operating policies and procedures for students, parents, faculty, administration, and staff at PCA; and that its purpose is to not only ensure that the school operates smoothly, but also honor and protect the dignity of all members of the PCA community. We therefore commit to abiding by the policies and procedures in the Parent-Student Handbook and, by our example, encouraging our child(ren) to do the same.

We acknowledge that PCA is wholly dependent on families keeping their accounts current to fulfill its obligations and expenses. We therefore commit to arrange for full payment of all tuition and fees accrued monthly.

**All families must have a Tuition Payment Agreement on file in the school office.*

We acknowledge that volunteering and fundraising is crucial to the success of a private school. Since all families benefit from a strong community and from working together to achieve common goals, we agree to attend, assist with, participate in, and promote school events as we are able.

**Alternatively, in lieu of volunteering for school events, we may donate $300 to the school for each child in grades K-8 that we have enrolled to help achieve the yearly fundraising goal.*
